

the top body on Wednesday and wound up with the week's No. 2 show — the highest ranking in its history.

Among other newsmagazines, CBS' 60 Minutes fell two slots to No. 6; NBC's Dateline NBC achieved its highest ranking to date (No. 16); ABC's PrimeTime Live was No. 15 and 20/20, No. 17.

NBC won the week, due mainly to the strong showing of the National Basketball Association finals between the Chicago Bulls and the Portland Trail Blazers. ABC came in third but won Tuesday night with the lineup of Home Improvement (No. 3); Roseanne (No. 1); and Coach (tied with Cheers at No. 4).

ABC's summer replacement series Julie ranked last (No. 88), trailing Fox's new series Vinnie & Bobby (No. 84).

And even supermodel Cindy Crawford couldn't lure viewers to Fox/MTV Guide to Summer (No. 80).

ABC won the evening news race, followed by CBS and NBC.

ARNOLD: 'Roseanne,' at No. 1, anchored ABC's winning Tuesday.

Original programming also garnered its highest ranking and airing since its January debut, thanks to anchor Ed Bradley's interview with ex-heavyweight boxing champ Mike Tyson. The sexy Monday night comedy, Grapevine, placed 9th and the CBS News special Watergate: The Secret Story placed 15th. The new crime drama Bodies of Seven of the top 20 shows this week were either newsmagazines with new stories, original series or specials.

CBS won the week, boosted by three fresh series and a special.

JFK on cable pay-per-view

By Brian Donlon
USA TODAY

NEW YORK — TV attention to the assassination of John F. Kennedy again, but this time, the story is shown in an unusual venue — pay-per-view.

Viewer's Choice The JFK Assassination: Jim Garrison Tapes. The tapes are available on cable listings for the week, at prices, which vary, but under $6). It comes on a number of documentaries on CBS, A&E and syndicated channels. The tapes features a film made 10 years ago by Garrison, the New Orleans district attorney who prosecuted the case and lost, a conspiracy theory. "It is Judge Garrison's own story," says executive producer Card.

Garrison has been interviewed in the past several years and has given interviews. Card says the tapes took so long to produce that it was a dead issue. But the success of Stone's JFK — in which Costner played Garrison — changed that.

Documentaries are only new to pay-per-view, but only previous production Memories of War: Labor Then and Now, the Request Service — so no one is surprised many viewers will watch. But that's not stopping Choice from presenting "We're not new information," says Viewer's senior vice president programming James Engram. "We can be informative. We can be entertaining. We're not controlled by the market. We really die of a heart attack." There are also pay-per-view sequels. Says Card, "We've had more than half of the Garrison tapes."

'ROSEANNE': Roseanne Arnold, John Goodman in top non-Olympic program

While NBC's Triplecast may have been a financial flop, NBC won the prime-time ratings race again last week on the strength of the Olympics.

The network's coverage of the Summer Olympics accounted for seven of the top 10 prime-time programs for the week.

CBS was in second place, aided by 60 Minutes, No. 11; Murder, She Wrote, No. 13; and the CBS Sunday night movie, Us, Michael Landon's last film, was the highest-rated movie of the week, No. 14.

The only non-Olympic programming to make it in the top 10 was ABC's Roseanne, No. 5, and Home Improve- ment and Coach, tied at No. 9.

ABC boasted seven of the top 20 programs of the week, including a special Tuesday airing of 20/20, No. 12; Full House, No. 15; and a repeat broadcast of Jewel of the Nile, starring Michael Douglas and Kathleen Turner, No. 17. Stephen King's 'It, Part 2, was No. 16.

Fourth-place Fox averaged a 6.1/11 for the 12 hours it programmed during the week.

In the news race, as usual, ABC's World News Tonight With Peter Jennings won with an 8.5 rating, 19 share, followed by CBS and NBC, tied for second place (7.9/18).

Despite dismal reviews, the movie premiere for the new summer series Malibu — starring Lisa Hartman, Drew Barrymore and Jennifer Beals — was the top-rated show of the week, followed by a rerun of ABC's Roseanne.

The viewing wallop that Roseanne packs helped a new series, Arresting Behavior, into TV's exclusive top-10, regular Wednesday night time period, Arresting — a spoof on reality cop shows — fell to No. 21.

Convention coverage dominated the airwaves, but not viewers' attention. Thursday night's ABC and NBC coverage of President Bush's acceptance speech were the highest-rated of the GOP gala, tying at No. 52. Overall, more winning Joan Plowright and Robert Guillaume in a sitcom version of the Oscar-winning movie ranked a not-so-hot No. 69 on Friday.

NBC was in second place for the week, ABC in third.

But ABC's World News Tonight captured its 85th consecutive weekly win in the evening news race, followed by CBS' Evening News with Dan Rather.

news magazine — and carried CBS to a win in the ratings race.

CBS credited its hurricane coverage with helping it to a win in the evening news race, the first since 1990.

Fox was second for the week, aided by Sunday's Emmy Awards, tied at No. 5, the highest-rated Emmy telecast so far on Fox, where viewership had been down.

CBS had 10 of the top 20 programs for the week, including Emmy-winning comedy Murphy Brown at No. 3.

2000 Malibu Road's premiere in its reg-

Seinfeld. The new Freshman Dorm isn't faring so well, at No. 69. And CBS' special Miss Teen U.S.A. ranked a strong No. 19, opposite ABC's No. 2 Roseanne.

Among Fox's premieres, The Simpsons ranked No. 31; the new Martin tied at No. 37. But The Heights fell to No. 68.

Though ABC network was in fourth place, its new fall series Covington Cross ranked No. 25, and a new episode of Arresting Behavior tied for No. 47.

NBC was in third place, with Blossom in the top 10 the third week in a row.

By Michael Grecco, Fox
'MARTIN': Tisha Campbell, Martin Lawrence ranked 37th in first outing.
